“I know what you’re thinking because I hear it all the time.... ‘oh what a pretty cat.’ I am grateful for the compliment but there is far more to me than my pretty looks. I have always been a little shy around people, but that is changing. I have a renewed mission and passion for life now than I did a couple of years ago. I used to be overcome by the problems that humans hold onto and carry with them. I think being human must be fairly difficult to deal with. You have certain blind spots about yourselves that you can’t seem to see the beauty in your own self. But I have come to realize that I can help with that. Every single being is beautiful. And when you let your inner light shine, you can be amazingly radiant. What I have learned is that I have a gift to help you find that inner core. I am grateful to help ease the burden of the human heart. You are more important than you realize. Every light is meant to shine. That is how we help each other out of darkness.”
