“I am very grateful to have a purpose in life. I am the head greeter here. That’s a big job. We get lots of visitors. I have to make sure they feel welcomed. Sometimes, if it gets to people-ly, I have secret resting places to take a nap. You can’t blame me for needing a nap sometimes. I have places where I can go lie in the sun and no one even finds me. Then, when I get recharged, I take another shift of greeting people. It feels great to be needed and wanted. I like to make visitors feel that way too. I can tell when I make someone feel extra special and it warms my heart to do so. There seems to be a lot of sadness in humans. But when they come in here, I like to try to help them push it aside and feel good, even if it is only for a little while. Kindness can truly change someone’s day and even their entire path in life. We can all be kind. Maybe that can be your mission too!”
